Charles Jackson Named President Of Seniors in Election Last Night

Midge Burnham Elected Vice President; Chairmanship of Senior Class Committee Conferred Upon Jean
Fugitt; Margaret Evans Designated Secretary

Charles Jackson of the Law School was elected president of the class of 1932 at a meeting of class presidents of each college and division last night in the Hatchet Office.

Presidents who were elected from the senior classes of their respective colleges and divisions last week, attended the meeting. All officers were required to be elected from among their number.

Mildred Burnham, president of the senior class of the School of Government, was elected vice-president; Margaret Evans, Library Science, secretary; and Gabriel Sosa, Pharmacy, treasurer.

Jean Fugitt, representative from Columbian College, will direct the class night program and will be assisted by Miriam Moss, Fine Arts, and John J. Kennedy, Medical School.

Florence P. Marks, president of the senior class of the School of Education, will be Class Historian and R. Woodward Moore, School of Engineering, will be in charge of class night publicity.

Each of the representatives was elected president of the senior class in their own college or division by vote of the students in the several divisions at their own meeting.

Women Excel Men In Scholastic Rating

Registrar's Records Show Difference in Average of Almost One Point

University women led the men in scholarship last semester by almost an entire point, according to index ratings received last week from the office of Fred E. Nessell, registrar of the University.

A comparison of the averages of men and women in the various schools of the University, show that in each division the women students made much better grades than the men students, the only exceptions being the School of Engineering in which there are no women students registered, and the Division of Library Science in which the men's average equaled 3.12 and the women's 3.06.

Quality points were computed from grades as follows: A, four points; B, three points; C, two points; D, one point; E, no points; F, minus one point for each semester hour. The index is obtained by dividing the number of quality points by the number of hours. Courses dropped, or marked Inc, were not considered in determining the index.

The scholarship index ratings for the first semester 1931-32 by division and by sex are printed below:

Division	Men	Women	All
Junior	2.00	2.39	2.16
Columbian	2.32	2.62	2.45
Engineering	2.03	2.93
Pharmacy	2.06	2.18	2.06
Education	2.25	2.73	2.68
Government	2.52	2.83	2.61
Library Science	3.12	3.06	3.07

Band To Accompany Mason Unit in March

Lead Washington Section in Dedication Parade Thursday

The University Band will take part in the dedication of the $5,000,000 Masons' Memorial to George Washington at Shooters Hill, Virginia, Thursday, when they will accompany a Washington unit of several thousand Masons.

They will lead the Washington section in a march to Union Station and then will parade in Alexandria.

Since the organization of the band and particularly during the last month there have been constant demands for the services of the band which, according to Director Louis Malkus, have for the most part been reluctantly refused because the part-time students have not been able to leave work.

Gate and Key Bids 16 Men Outstanding In Greek Societies

Week-end Party at Log Inn to Be Final Social Event This Year

Sixteen prospective members were pledged by Gate and Key Honor Society at a meeting at the Sigma Nu house last Wednesday night, to carry on the traditions of the organization through the ensuing year, filling vacancies left by June graduations.

The new pledges, with their fraternity affiliations, are Sigma Chi—Max Rote, Albert Johnston; Kappa Alpha—Geoffrey Greyke; Phi Sigma Kappa—John Everett, Arthur Zahn; Delta Tau Delta—John Fenlon, Beryl Hix; Sigma Alpha—Epsilon—Edward Nordrop; Sigma Phi Epsilon—William Lewis; Sigma Nu—William Weisbrod, Hazen Shea, William Winston; Acacia—Wayne Chambers; Theta Upsilon Omega—George Wenzl, Orville Wildes; Sigma Mu Sigma—Howard Payne.

All of the men pledged were recognized as social leaders in their respective fraternities, and each has been active in some campus activity or organization.

Max Rote, captain of the Colonial swimming team, bore the brunt of the competition throughout the year, and is recognized as an expert of his art. Al Johnston, has turned his attention more to the organization of his own chapter, and is president of Sigma Chi for the next year.

Activities Are Varied

Geoffrey Greyke has been a member of the men's glee club and the swimming team. Arthur Zahn, captain-elect of the varsity basketball team, has been a stellar court performer since his matriculation. John Everett has been active on the Hatchet and Cherry Tree staffs, devoting his activity to sports, possibly to give proper attention to publicity for the golf team, of which he is manager, or the varsity basketball aggregation of which he was assistant manager.

John Fenlon proved his worth on the gridiron. Beryl Hix, a member of the glee club for three years, has also been active within his own group, Delta Tau Delta. Ed Nordrop, has been interested particularly in dramatics. Lewis is president of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The Sigma Nus, who were compelled to fill three vacancies, had little difficulty, selecting William Weisbrod, chapter president, Hazen Shea, a lead in dramatic productions, and Billy Winston, a chapter officer.

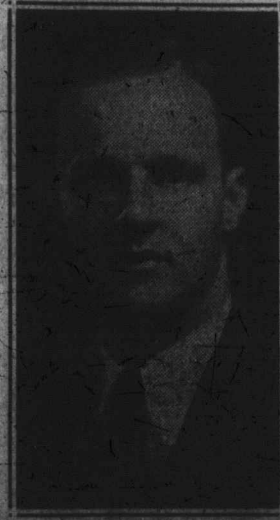

Initiation Next Fall

These sixteen men will be initiated in the early fall, and will be called upon to carry out the purpose of the organization—to promote fellowship between members of the various campus fraternities—organizing a fraternity within the fraternities.

The final event of the year, the annual week-end party to be held Saturday and Sunday, June 11 and 12, holds in store a good time for all who are planning to attend. Log Inn, near Annapolis, will be the scene of the affair. Located on the bay, it provides an ideal location for bathing, boating, and fishing. On Saturday night an orchestra from Baltimore will

Trade Official Talks To Delta Phi Epsilon

Edward L. Bacher Discusses Reciprocal Tariffs and Relations

Edward L. Bacher, manager of the Foreign Trade division, United States Commerce Department, was guest speaker of Delta Phi Epsilon foreign service fraternity on Monday, May 3. Mr. Bacher discussed the subject of reciprocal tariffs and outlined the policy of his organization as being one of reasonable protection for American industries that are subject to destructive competition but which, nevertheless, are a benefit to the country as a whole or to an important part of the country.

Speaking of reciprocal relations, he mentioned the propaganda issued by the World Trade League and various economic theories relative to the desirability of reciprocal tariffs; i. e., a flat rate of reduction placed on imports from each country provided that such countries reciprocate as respects our products. Mr. Bacher pointed out that manufacturers as a group are not free traders and any tariff system devised on a bargaining basis is impractical.

Following the smoker of May 16, at which time election of officers will take place, Delta Phi Epsilon activities will close with an annual banquet, Sunday, May 22, at the Kennedy-Warren.

Speech Art Society Announces Winners

Zeta Tau Alpha, Theta Upsilon Omega Win Intramural Debate Contest

After fighting their way through the earlier rounds of the Intramural Debate contest against the best competition the University had to offer, the Zeta Tau Alpha and Theta Upsilon Omega teams won the championship in their respective leagues in the finals held Thursday, May 5, in Corcoran Hall. The contest has been conducted under the auspices of Delta Sigma Rho, a national debating society.

Zeta Tau Alpha in the varsity class, represented by Olivia Watkins and Jean Randall, debating the negative of the question: "Resolved, That married women in government positions whose husbands are gainfully employed should be replaced by qualified persons now unemployed," defeated Phi Sigma Sigma, represented by Charlotte Dublin and Sylvia Nelson.

In the fraternity class, Theta Upsilon Omega, represented by Harry Clayton and James Hobbs, debating the affirmative, showed the way to the Acacia team, composed of William Theodore Pierson and Perrin Lowrey on the question, "Resolved, That the crime of kidnapping should be punished by death."

The contests were judged by Gilbert L. Hall, national vice president of Delta Sigma Rho, and Morris Edwards, secretary of Tau Kappa Alpha.

The winners were presented with silver cups which will remain in their possession for one year, and under a new resolution passed by Delta Sigma Rho, if won any two other times will become the permanent possession of that group.

All-University Carnival Arouses Striking Display of School Spirit; Ruth Molyneux Crowned Queen

Philippinesian Club has Finest Side Show; Vodvil Honors Go to Chi Omega; Danzansky and Sickler Shine As Masters of Ceremonies

The Carnival profit amounted to approximately $1500 according to announcement made last night by the Bursar's office. Receipts from the popularity contest amounted to $793.74 and from the carnival $1225.01. Expenses were estimated by the Student Council Carnival committee, composed of Theodore Rinehart, Arthur Kriemelmeyer and Elizabeth Rees, as being between $600 and $700.

Previous to the carnival the Council had raised $1582 which makes the fund raised during the entire year $3600.

By CHARLES A. BELL

The first All-University Carnival has gone into the history of George Washington University as an outstanding success. The carnival was sponsored by the Student Council for the University Band.

From the time fencing began in the College Yard early Friday evening until after the coronation of the Carnival Queen, when the last strains of soft music drifted from Corcoran Hall late Saturday night, the local campus was the scene of festivities unparalleled in the records of the University.

The coronation of Ruth Molyneux as Queen of the Carnival ranks as the highlight of the celebration. As purple and gold spotlights played brilliantly on the crowd, a path was opened to make way for the Queen. Ripples of applause ran along the line as the charmingly poised winner of the popularity contest marched majestically down the grassy avenue to her coronation, flanked by her attendants, Evelyn Eiler and Vola Drury, and her train borne by two tots in colonial costume. Upon reaching the throne, an emblematic crown was placed on her head.

For President Marvin. A silver loving cup was next presented by Steele McGrew on behalf of Gate and Key.

Dorothy Douglas Re-elected President at Meeting Last Thursday

Delphi, women's honorary social fraternity, elected into its fold 15 new members from the various social sororities, at a meeting on Thursday, May 5.

The committee appointed to complete arrangements for the final social event of the organization for this year is headed by Betty Moorehead. Her assistants are Sue Gibson, Marion Boyle and Edith Brookhart.

Ron Hubbard Wins Drama Prize with "The God Smiles"

L. Ron Hubbard, sophomore in the school of engineering, is the winner of the recent contest sponsored by the Literary Supplement of the University Hatchet, with his play, "The God Smiles," a one-act drama.

The plot for "The God Smiles" is laid in a cafe in Teingtau, China, and takes place during the reign of the Kumintang, a communistic tribunal. A snow storm is raging outside.

The prize given to the winner was Sheldon Cheney's, "The Theatre, 3,000 Years of Drama, Acting and Stagecraft," donated by Paul Pearlman. It is an interesting history of every phase of the theatre from as far back as records can be had, and discusses the playwrights from Aeschylus to O'Neill; and the actors from Athens, to Eleanor Duse and Charles Chaplin.

The judges in the contest were Ernest L. Sheppard, Courtland D. Baker, assistant professors of English, and Constance Connor Brown, head of dramatic art and play production here.

The prize-winning play in full will be published in the next issue of the Literary Supplement, which will appear May 17.

Cheers greeted the Queen's gracious speech of acceptance. Loving cups were then presented to Evelyn Eiler and Vola Drury, runners-up in the popularity contest.

First prize among the booths and side shows was awarded to the Philippines Club for the most elaborate and beautiful display in the carnival. The total value of this exhibit aggregated more than five thousand dollars. Zeta Tau Alpha took second prize for its shoe shine parlor as the most original attraction.

In the vodvil division, top honors were carried off by Chi Omega with its Spignul-trained follies. Sigma Nu, the Russian Gandhi-gang, took second prize. Third place went to the burlesque boys of Theta Delta Chi. Other attractions nominated for honors were the Shakespeare Club and the dancer team of Kennedy, Mitchell, and Nyman, and above all, those two inimitable masters of ceremonies, Joe Danzansky and Jerry Sickler.

Theodore Rinehart

Within most organizations there is some individual who, by dint of ability and application, is almost certain to become the leader of the group. Theodore Rinehart has proved himself to be such a person. As an outstanding member of the retiring Student Council, Ted is entitled to recognition of the highest sort for his untiring efforts in behalf of the University Band.

Leadership is a scarce commodity and particularly does it seem to be lacking in the more or less cosmopolitan group which constitutes the student body of George Washington University. Most of us are content to settle back and adopt an attitude of laissez faire. Individuals like Rinehart are responsible for the place we occupy in the sun. The Hatchet congratulates Theodore Rinehart upon the success of the All-University Carnival.

Wake Up, Chillun, Wake Up

Creeping up with customary deadened footsteps are final examinations. But the schedule printed on this page is certain to jolt hundreds into a realization that in three weeks the annual "June funerals" will start.

There is a difficult time ahead for many and they will need no encouragement to make them stick to their books for the rest of the year. The realization that a "D" or "flunk" is about to be earned in a neglected course will prove an unusually effective incentive to study. Last minute "boning" is deplorable for a number of reasons, but until a method is devised to inspire students to devote more of their best hours to the pursuit of knowledge the best we can do is substitute the word condone for deplore.

CHIPS

May time! Exam time! Carnival time! Any old time—it sure has kept Rollo busy fearing the proverbial shirt in order to cover all the events which George Washington students attended last week. . . . Viva la Gate and Key. Long live the Queen! . . . My, oh my—what a contest, and such a little space to say something about it. . . . However, we must say, "Even at the base of Kappa's statue the mighty Slicker fell." "Et tu, Fesler." . . . Several moot questions: Van Demark's last minute check? The Kappa Rummage Sale? Did the Chi O's switch votes? And did Fesler quit work to sell Bibles to put Eller over? . . . With those 800 smackers the band won't even bother to have pants cleaned. They can just throw them away and get new ones. . . . Herzog announces that his box performance in the Faculty-O.D.K. game has placed his services at a premium for both sides for next year's melee. . . . After spending the better part of a whole night preparing the extra special "Wuxtra" paper, ye editors used up three weeks' reserve energy repelling ambitious newsmen who insisted that they really should read it. . . . As for the vodvil—we might note that Doris Skinner and Nick Altrock have one thing in common—they are the only ones that keep in step. . . . John Madigan's first date ended when Cele Harrington blundered in a most diplomatic way: "We'd better hurry or we won't find my date." . . . Jake Olverson and Janet Young skipped the ticket collectors in the Dime a Dance Hall by hiding behind the piano. . . . Among the guys we'd like to kill is the one who rocked the cars on the ferris wheel. . . . Just as an interlude—we sincerely say, "Hats off! Ted Rinehart's passing by!" . . . Gate and

Key was there with carnations, but coronation time found the members engaged in an impromptu meeting of the Green Dragons. . . . A glance at that Theta Delta chorus justifies all suspicions and leads us to suggest its substitution for those atrocious Troubadour choruses. . . . That "Rooshian" offering of the Sigma Nu's brought a flying offering of assorted fruits, reminding us of old times. . . . The noble Kappas who volunteered to act as hostesses dragged tired bodies home with weary feet and dreary eyes.

Gate and Key's spring house party has been assured success since 16 prospective fraters were safely inveilled this week. . . . The Sigma Kappas forfeit all right to publicity in this column since they failed to send the remnants of their tea to The Hatchet Sunday Night Club. . . . There were rather embarrassing moments at Fraternity Mother's Day Teas when the lads were asked if they would have lemon or sugar with their tea and inadvertently replied they'd take it straight. . . . The Zetters and the Tuosers won the Delta Sigma Rho gab fest. We suggest a contest between the two to relieve the campus of at least one inflated ego. . . .

From all the pointing that was done at Professor Ragatz at the Carnival, we might suggest that they put him in a booth next year and charge ten cents for a look at the campus' most popular professor. . . . Do you think we've said enough? We do too. If it doesn't seem so good to you, it's because we've been reading the "humor" in the Feature Section of the Cherry Tree. Rollo offers apologies to Leonard Stevens for not being a poet. . . . Wishing you a little cheer and pleasant dreams. An revoir.

DICK ROLLO.

Columbians Keep Lead; Pre-Med Wins Twice In Intramural Series

Junior College Rallies To Beat Medics, 8-7; Weingartner Pitches No-hit Ball In 18-0 Columbian Victory; Better Play Shown

STANDING OF TEAMS

Columbian Col.	6-0
Junior Col.	3-2
Pre-Meds	2-3
Engineers	1-4
Pharmacists	1-4

Results Last Week:

Columbian 18, Junior 0; Pre-Meds 5, Engineers 0; Juniors 8, Pre-Meds 7; Pre-Meds 11, Pharmacists 6.

By JOHN BUSICK

Improved play last week in the Intramural League produced only one radical change in the standing of the teams. The Pre-Meds won two of their three games and jumped from the cellar to third place, just one game behind the Junior College nine which held its position by defeating the future doctors on a thrilling last inning rally, 8-7.

In the other games Columbian won from the Juniors, 18-0, while on Friday and Saturday the Pre-Meds rang up 5-0 and 11-6 victories over the Engineers and Pharmacists, respectively. The Columbian's victory, though expected, was rather surprising in that Weingartner let the losers down without a hit or run while his mates pounded Gleeson hard.

For six innings on Monday the Pre-Meds led the Juniors by a substantial margin and until the final round seemed sure of victory. Trailing at this time, 6-2, the men of Van Demark suddenly awoke from their lethargy and chased across six runs in a hurry. Singles by Alfaro and Ainsline coupled with three walks and Gleeson's triple with two on base accounted for the scores.

Bill Parrish's double and steal to third followed by a long outfield fly which scored him, enabled the Pre-Meds to get back one of these runs but Gleeson fanned Trilling for the third out to end the game.

Score by Innings:

Junior.....0 0 2 0 0 6-8
Pre-Meds.....3 2 0 1 0 1-7

Bill Noonan satisfied his supporters by turning in his first good game of the season on Friday as he shut-out the Engineers 5-0, holding them to three hits while fanning seven. His mates touched Hetzel, bespectacled Engineer hurler, for ten hits and bunched them enough to score five times.

Baldwin's clean single to center in the first round, Jackson's scratch hit in the second and Hetzel's safe single in the fifth constituted the Engineers' only hits. Hetzel held the victors in check until the fourth when they scored once, adding another in the fifth and sixth and scoring twice in the final round. The game was close enough throughout to be interesting although the winners got more than half their hits in the last three innings.

"Hoggy" Albert collected three hits in four trips to the tee while Trilling had to be satisfied with two. These men, though leading in batting, also contributed the fielding features of the day in their respective positions.

Saturday's game between the Pre-Meds and the Pharmacists was a rather loose affair. Both teams fielded below their usual standard while the winners out hit their victims eleven to ten.

Albert's double which scored two men in the fourth started the Pre-Med rally

Women to Sponsor School Sports Day

Majors in Physical Education to Take Charge of Program

A high school play day will be sponsored by the Physical Education Department for Women of the University on May 14. All five high schools of the District will participate in the event which will take place on the Ellipse. In case of rain, an indoor program at the Y. W. C. A. at Seventeenth and K streets has been planned.

This play day, part of the Festival of Youth planned by the George Washington Bicentennial Commission, will be run entirely by major students in the Physical Education Department.

Each high school will be represented by twenty-five girls who will be put on mixed teams in order to promote the true play day spirit of sport for the sheer joy of playing the game. Registration of all participants is scheduled for 1 p. m.

The first event on the program is group games at 1:30, to be followed by kick ball, volley ball, novelty relays, stunts, and track events from 2 to 4 p. m.

O. D. K. Winners Over Faculty Nine As Herzog Pitches

Students Slug Way to 12-4 Victory Over Professors in Revival of Game

By knocking Professor John Albert Tillema from the box in the second inning, after scoring four runs and treating the offerings of his successor on the hill, Bill Meyers, with even less respect, the O. D. K. diamonders slugged their way to a revengful 12-4 victory over the Faculty nine on the Monument lot last Saturday afternoon. A colorful and enthusiastic gathering of several hundred fans were on hand to see the revival of the annual baseball game between the Faculty and students.

Bucky Herzog pitched the entire seven innings for the winners and allowed 8 hits while striking out 10. Profs. Despite some chronic wildness in the opening frames, Herzog had the situation fairly well in hand. The combined offerings of Tillema and Meyers were combed for 15 hits, four of which went for extra bases. The longest hit of the day was made by Prof. Benny Cruickshanks, who hit for the circuit in the third inning with no one on base.

Dr. Tillema found his Waterloo in the second inning when O. D. K. produced four runs from the like number of hits. Perna-Henninger, O. D. K. shortstop, caught the Prof infield asleep when he dropped a perfectly executed bunt down the sidelines. Don Siekler's surprise clout to right field advanced Henninger to third and he scored a moment later when Bill Meyers fumbled Gray's infield hit. Tillema tightened up momentarily and made Pomeroy pop to Lee and Dismar strike out. A slashing three-base hit by Kriemelmeyer cleared the bases to score two runs. On a wild pitch by the tired professor, Kriemelmeyer raced across the plate. Ford Young knocked a two-base hit only to be left stranded when Tillema struck out his rival on the mound, Herzog.

The winners scored three more off Meyers in his initial appearance in the third and four more in the fourth frame on a three-base hit by Gray, another double by Young and two singles by Siekler and Pomeroy. In this inning Meyers struck out Dismar, Castell and Henninger for the three outs. The Faculty threatened to rally in

Duke And St. John's Defeat Racquetters; Prospects Doubtful

Robinson Only Undefeated Member of Colonial Squad; Shows Well

Taking their second defeat in two days, the George Washington University tennis team went down before St. John's College of Brooklyn, 6-4. The match was played at Columbia Country Club last Friday. Robinson continuing his winning streak, won his match from Lindenbaum in two straight sets. He remains the only undefeated member of the squad.

In the number one singles, Harry Goldsmith lost to Tavolin, who is one of the most brilliant players that ever graced intercollegiate courts. All in all, the St. John's team was composed of a high grade lot of players and it speaks well for the Colonials to say that they took four out of the nine matches from this outfit.

Edwards and Goldsmith, playing the number one doubles, defeated Tavolin and Nogrady in three sets. The Sherfy twins lost the number two doubles to Klausner and Lindenbaum; and Robinson and Bennett vanquished Kellner and Froonkin in two easy sets.

Singles Close

The most interesting match to watch was the number one singles played between Goldsmith and Tavolin. Goldsmith won the first overtime set 9-7, but was defeated in two straight sets by the fast footwork and accurate placement of his opponent; 6-3, 6-4.

Summaries:

Singles: Tavolin defeated Goldsmith 7-9, 6-3, 6-4; Nogrady defeated Edwards 7-5, 6-3; Robinson defeated Lindenbaum 6-3, 8-6; Klausner defeated Lee 6-2, 7-9, 6-2; R. Sherfy defeated Tenne 6-3, 6-2; Lipschitz defeated Gable 3-6, 7-5, 10-8.

Links Schedule Ends With Delaware Meet

Colonial Golfers Seek Only Victory for Season in Last Match

Still seeking that elusive victory, the Colonial varsity golfers will face Delaware University on the latter's home links, Thursday, May 19. The match is the final one listed on the schedule.

The Hatchettes will be set to make a desperate effort to achieve a win, since it will be their last opportunity this year. A match with Duke University was cancelled, the Blue Devils being unable to play on the date carded, May 6. John Everett is managing the team, which will be making its only journey of the season on its visit to the Delaware institution.

The faculty of the University of Rochester has dispensed with all eight o'clock classes, as they claim it is better for the students to sleep in their own rooms than in their classes.

Weingartner Hurls No-Hit Ball Game

No Opponent Reaches Second Base; Columbian Continues Streak

"Heine" Weingartner, pitching for the Columbian College nine against Junior College Wednesday, turned in a no-hit, no-run game while his mates slugged out 12 hits and 18 runs for their sixth straight victory as they continued to lead the league.

Only two men reached first base, so effective was Weingartner, and none progressed farther than that. In the second, Gray was safe when Burgess muffed his grounder, and two rounds later Manville was nicked on the hand by a fast pitch and was thereafter entitled to his base. Both runners died at the initial sack as Weingartner fanned the next batter for the third out.

Though given fine support defensively, with the exception of Burgess miscue, the Columbian ace had the Juniors eating out of his hand, only one ball going to the outfield. In the last inning he fanned three batters in succession to retire the side and increase his strike-outs to 10 for the day.

Swimming Features Spring Sports Week

Three Class Teams to Participate in Women's Event Thursday

Thursday, May 12, at 8 p. m., is the date set for the Women's Interclass Swimming Meet. The pool at the Y. W. C. A. will be utilized for this event which is a preliminary part of the Annual Spring Sports Week program.

The three class teams which will participate in the event are under the management of Adele Meriam, freshman, Priscilla Bunker, sophomore, and Betty Reynolds, junior-senior, while the entire meet is being directed by Betty Munroe, swimming manager.

The program includes the 80-yard free style, 40 yard free style, 40 yard back crawl, 40 yard single over-arm, relay, form swimming in side stroke, trudgeon back crawl, breast, and crawl, and diving. There will be two optional dives and two required dives, the running front or swim, and the back.

Among those women who were prominent during last year's swimming season who will again be seen in the water this year are Louise Linkins, Priscilla Bunker, and Inga Von Lewinski. These veteran swimmers and the new material on each team promise to make the event an exciting one.

History Association Has Annual Meeting

Convention Held Under Auspices of George Washington University

The twenty-ninth annual spring meeting of the Association of History Teachers of the District of Columbia was held at the George Washington University, Maryland, convened last Friday and Saturday under the auspices of the George Washington University.

David Lawrence, editor of the United States Daily, was the speaker at the luncheon tendered to members of the association by the University. In his speech, he said that "if a community is to be wisely and justly governed, the leaders of thought and action must regard citizenship as one of their national obligations and their interest in the affairs of state must be honest, disinterested and unselfish." Mr. Lawrence also stated that "we are seeking nowadays an enlightening nationalism. Its first prerequisite is knowledge, and above all an intelligent leadership which can translate that knowledge into intelligent action."

At the closing session devoted to "Phases of Recent American History" Professor John W. Oliver, of the University of Pittsburgh, presented a paper on "Technology and New History," and Professor Nelson T. Nead, of the College of the City of New York, discussed "American Traditions and World Realities." Round table discussion was lead by Professor Flagg Bemis.

Education Societies To Combine Affairs

Dr. Fred Kelly, of Education Bureau, to Speak at Annual Banquet

The Women's Education Club will give its first annual dinner at the Grace Dodge Hotel on May 14. The dinner will be given in conjunction with the Men's Education Club.

Dr. Fred Kelly, Chief Director of Higher Education in the Bureau of Education will be the speaker of the evening.

The club will present a skit in the nature of a parody on some of the theories of Modern Education. The final number of the evening's program will be the installation of the newly elected officers.

The club is planning two joint summer meetings with the Men's Club. These meetings will be in the form of a garden party and a picnic. They are to be given for the purpose of keeping up the interest of the club and for the benefit of the summer students in this field.

The club has had a very rapid growth this year. Its purpose is to arouse the interest of the women in the School of Education in discussion of the problems in their line of work and also to serve as a social organization within the School of Education. To become a member one must have six hours of credit in the School of Education.

Dr. Maurice L. Tainter, of Stanford University medical school, substituted a man-made, mechanical heart in a living animal and kept it alive, with normal blood pressure, for several hours.

Duke and St. John's Defeat Racquetists; Future Doubtful

feated Tavolin and Nogrady 2-6, 6-3, 6-2; Klausner and Lindenbaum defeated L. and R. Sherfy 6-1, 7-5; Robinson and Bennett defeated Kellner and Frognkin 6-1, 6-1.

Final Score: St. John's-5; George Washington-4.

Robinson Wins
Randy Robinson came through with the only victory of the occasion as Duke University defeated George Washington 8-1, Thursday. Laurence Sherfy was the only other player who managed to stretch his match to an extra set, but he lost after a hard fight 6 and 3.

Likewise in the doubles the matches were all in favor of Duke; Robinson playing the doubles with Bennett dragged the affair into extra innings, but the cause was futile. Robinson weakened by the playing of five grueling sets and a strained back, was unable to do his share and the team went down before the attack of Martin and Butler to the tune of 6-3, 4-6, 6-0.

George Washington rooters who follow the activities of the tennis team recall that Robinson was one of the pair that pulled the Hampden-Sydney match out of the bag last week, but the best he could do Thursday was to save the team the ignominy of a 9-0 defeat.

Future Doubtful

Prospects for the future are none too glorious. The matches with St. John's of Brooklyn and Duke were undoubtedly first rate tennis, but the future promises some even better. The meet with St. John's of Annapolis on Monday comes under the heading of Breather; but Baltimore University on May 12, Hopkins on May 18, Temple on May 20, and Pittsburgh on May 21 give the racquetists racquetists plenty to think about.

Summaries:
Singles: Walsh (D) defeated Goldsmith 6-2, 3-6; Garber (D) defeated Edwards 6-2, 6-4; Peake (D) defeated Gable 6-1, 6-1; Robinson (GW) defeated Norwood 4-6, 6-3, 6-4; Martin defeated Lee (GW) 6-2, 6-2; Butler (D) defeated L. Sherfy 1-6, 6-1, 6-3.

Doubles: Walsh and Norwood defeated Goldsmith and Edwards 6-2, 6-2; Garber and Peake defeated L. and R. Sherfy 6-4, 6-2; and Martin and Butler defeated Robinson and Bennett 6-3, 4-6, 6-0.

Final score: Duke-8; George Washington-1.

International Group Sponsors Musicales

Movie, "A Trip Through Holland," Precedes Musical Program

Sixty members of the International Students' Society and their friends enjoyed one of the most interesting of the social-musicales the society has yet given, last Wednesday evening, May 4.

The highlight of the evening was a movie, "A Trip Through Holland," which was a picturization of life in the Netherlands showing everything from cheese manufacturing to windmills. As the movies unfolded, Henri Von Hoof, Dutch student in the University and the winner of the International Oratorical Contest last year, gave very interesting explanations of the scenes of his native land.

The musical part of the program was executed by Nancy Sleight, who played several selections on the piano, and by Platonina Papps, who sang "Neapolitan Nights."

Sigma Nu Defeats Two Rivals; Delt, Phi Sig Nines Also Win

Leaders of Interfraternity Baseball Series Continue Winning Streak at Expense of K. A. and S. P. E.; Kappa Sigs Win

By JOHN EVERETT

Sigma Nu diamonders continued their march toward the League B championship in the Interfraternity baseball series by blasting whatever title hopes Kappa Alpha and S. P. E. may have cherished in games played last week-end. Kappa Sig is the only other team remaining undefeated in the league after defeating K. A. on Sunday.

Phi Sigma Kappa and Delta Tau Delta alone have clean slates in League A, T. U. O. succumbed to Phi Sig and the Deltas beat the lowly Theta Delta. Acacia came up to second place by virtue of a victory over Sigma Chi. Sigma Mu Sigma was shoved down in the cellar position with K. A., by a loss to S. A. E.

The luckless K. A.s fell prey to sigma Nu 9-2, largely due to the poor support given their pitcher, Reds Bannerman, who had the situation well in hand until the fourth inning when his offerings were combed for 3 markers. K. A. scored twice in the third frame but were impotent the remainder of the game against the slants of H. Smith.

Score by innings:

S. N.	0	1	0	3	3	2	9
K. A.	0	0	2	0	0	0	2

Batteries: (K. A.) Bannerman and Boggs; (S. N.) H. Smith and Weaver.

Sigma Nu had more trouble with S. P. E. than an 11-1 score would indicate. Except for two innings when everything seemed to go wrong for the Sig Eps and the Snakes scored 9 runs, the game produced some closely contested issues. Ed Crouch hurled masterfully for the winners, allowing only 4 hits, one of them a double by Jay Payne in the first inning. A Snake scoring spurge accounted for 6 runs from 6 hits in the disastrous third, while Weaver's homer in the next frame helped to score three more.

Score by innings:

S. N.	0	1	6	3	0	1	x-11
S. P. E.	0	1	0	0	0	0	1

Batteries: (S. N.) Crouch and Weaver; (S. P. E.) Sompayrac and Sullivan.

Phi Sigs Beat T. U. O.

Bob Gray and Dana Quarles were the heavy guns for the Phi Sigs, each accounting for three safeties in a 13-4 victory over T. U. O. The winners jumped on Taylor, T. U. O. pitcher, in the first inning, when they made 4 runs, and continued it with a 2-run addition in the fifth frame. A threatening T. U. O. rally fell short of the mark in the last inning when Quarles eased up to allow 3 hits and 2 runs.

Score by innings:

T. U. O.	1	0	1	0	0	2	4
P. S. K.	4	1	0	2	6	0	x-13

Batteries: (T. U. O.) Taylor and Dryer; (P. S. K.) Quarles, Monroe and Stehman.

What started out to be an interesting game ended in a complete riot of Sigma Mu Sigma by S. A. E., 24-6. Haskell started in the box for the Sig Mus and was driven from the box in the first frame when 5 runs were scored on him. His successor, Harril, allowed 1 run until the sixth inning, largely due to good support up to that time and a baffling delivery. Hale and Embry connected for triples in the hectic seventh when the S. A. E.s drove Harril from the mound and treated Chamberlain little better for a 12-run inning.

Score by innings:

S. A. E.	5	0	1	0	4	12	24
S. M. S.	2	0	2	0	0	2	6

Batteries: (S. A. E.) Durham and Sherry; (S. M. S.) Haskell, Harril, Chamberlain and Edwards.

was the feat accomplished by Johnny Fenlon in helping the Deltas snow under the Theta Deltas, 18-9. Each circuit clout found some teammate parked on the sacks to help matters along. Neither team scored until the third inning when the Theta Deltas got two runs and a Delt rally earned four. An even more determined spurge accounted for 9 markers in the next inning to put the game safely away for the Deltas. Lefty Pates hurled the entire game for the winners.

Score by innings:

T. D. X.	0	0	2	2	5	9

Batteries: (D. T. D.) Pates and Keller; (T. D. X.) Fahrner, Sterrett and Lancaster.

Billy Helvestine served notice on his future opponents on the mound by striking out 18 Sigma Chis while walking six in Acacia's 11-6 victory. Out of the 4 hits he allowed, three-beggars by Sizoo and Spencer were the longest. The Masons started off to a 3-run lead in the first frame and got two more in the third and 5 in the fifth on three walks and 2 hits. Rote, who relieved Siekler, showed a good fast ball but lacked the necessary control.

Kappa Sigma Kills Jinx

Kappa Sigma finally killed the old jinx when they won over the K.A.s 11-3, due largely to some loose ball playing on the supporting cast of the losers. Bannerman again pitched for K. A. and struck out eleven men. Ray Elliot, Kappa Sig captain, also fanned eleven. During a 6-run scoring spree in the fourth, Tommy Baldwin connected for a triple to score Reeside, Eldridge and Elliot. Due to the intense heat, a number of K. A.s sported their swim suits during the struggle.

Distant Admirers Address Popularity Contestants With "Inspired" Fan Mail

By VIRGINIA HAWKINS

Not content with campus popularity, three fair entrants in Gate and Key's contest to select a carnival queen are experiencing the thrill of receiving fan mail from ardent admirers who apparently believe our coeds are after all a jump or two ahead of the rest of them when it comes to comparison of feminine appeal and charm.

North, South, and West, have all joined in smoothing the vanity of three participants in the contest, who, although not crowned queen of the carnival, must be compensated to some degree by such flattering attention.

Kitty Blake was informed by a fan from Maine that she was the most beautiful girl in a group of three appearing in a daily there, and that without a doubt she would win the contest. The admirer wanted an autographed photograph of Kitty, and begged that she favor him with an answer to his letter.

The annual meeting of the Columbian-George Washington Law School Association will be held at 8 p. m., on Saturday, June 11, at the Willard Hotel, immediately preceding the reception and dance in honor of the graduating classes of 1932. It will be given jointly by the General Alumni Association, The George Washington University Medical Society and the Columbian-George Washington Law School Association.

The joint reception will be the second annual affair sponsored by the three Alumni Associations. It follows the precedent established last year when the first successful combined party was given in honor of the classes of 1931.

The committee on arrangements is composed of Dr. Daniel Borden, Albert Conrad, Lyman Dishmon, H. Clay Espey, Dr. Frank Hornaday, James Dirklund, Marcelle Le Menager, and Margaret Maize.

Medical Professors Conduct Researches

Drs. McKinley, Soule, Report on Leprosy for Pathology Society

The increasing importance with which George Washington University Medical School is coming to be held in scientific research circles was demonstrated last week in Philadelphia.

Dr. Earl B. McKinley read a paper before the American Society for Experimental Pathology entitled "A Concept of the Ultra-Microscopic Virus and a New Classification of the Virus Diseases." This was a report on extensive study of leprosy germs, which he and Dr. Malcolm H. Soule, of the University of Michigan, have been carrying on for some time.

At the same time Dr. Joseph H. Roe, of the medical school, presented a paper to the American Society of Biological Chemists, entitled "The Galactose Metabolism." Dr. Roe is extremely well-founded upon the subject for he has been doing extensive research on sugar metabolism for some time.

Dr. George H. Roth, also of the medical school faculty, attended meetings of the American Society of Pharmacology and was elected member of the Council of the Society. He then attended an executive session of the committee on the revision of the United States Pharmacopoeia.

Seven Awards Go To Undergraduates

Various Universities and Colleges Among Palmolive-Colgate Winners

A check of the winners in the Palmolive-Colgate contest reveals that seven of the cash awards have been won by undergraduates. To date honors are divided between Princeton, Columbia, Carleton, Duke, State Teachers of Arkansas, University of Dayton, and St. Thomas College.

In order to further stimulate interest among college men, free samples of both shaving creams are being distributed in all colleges. Cash prizes totaling $4,200 each month are being awarded for the best "blurbs" explaining the writer's preference. The Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Company is giving a total of $25,000 in cash. Each month two first prizes of $500 are awarded. In February these were won by men from Manchester, N. H., and Bridgeport, Conn. In March the first prize money was divided between men living in New Orleans, La., and Spartanburg, S. C. Details of the contest are appearing in the advertising columns of national magazines and The University Hatchet.

KATHERINE MCCALLUM

One of the best known and liked members of the women's physical education department is Katherine McCallum, a major and senior in that department.

Four years of constant activity in many extra-curricular activities are about to come to a close for Katherine and her graduation next month will take from the Physical Ed Department a worker with an always cheery smile.

Key's University honors include election to Hour Glass, women's honorary activities fraternity, in 1930.

A member of the Women's Athletic Association Board in 1930, 1931 and 1932, she has been president of the board during the past year. Athletic excellence has also earned her the management of varsity basketball and membership on the honorary varsity teams in hockey and basketball.

Other than athletic fields have engaged her attention, too. She is a member of Orchestra, University dance club; was a member of the old Drama Club in 1929-30, and reported for The Hatchet in 1930-31. Her greatest honor this year was election as delegate to the Athletic Council of American College Women.

Key McCallum is a member of Chi Omega social sorority, and is president of Rho Epsilon Mu.

Most Prominent Dramatic Student to Receive Prize

Alpha Eta Epsilon, honorary dramatic fraternity, has voted to present a large bronze cup each year to the student who is most outstanding in George Washington University dramatics during the year.

In order that the prize will be fairly awarded, a committee of three judges, comprised of several capable members of the faculty will be chosen by Alpha Eta Epsilon. The fraternity hopes that this will aid in fostering greater interest in dramatics in the University.

The prize will be known as the Alpha Eta Epsilon Honor Cup; the first cup will be awarded at the end of the present semester. The Student so honored is still to be selected.

University Carnival Shows Variety of Amateur Ability

The huge ferris wheel did a capacity business on both evenings and crowds were constantly in evidence around the nail-driving and penny-throwing stands. Kappa Alpha has the distinction of providing the leading money-earner of the carnival; it seems people always delight in knocking down milk bottles. The tent of Mahatma Sampath, the seer from India, had a continuous waiting-line, comprised for the most part of members of the fairer sex, who waited patiently to be told whether they would marry men dark or fair, tall or not so tall, rich or otherwise.

Statements by the two men most responsible for the success of the carnival appear with this article.

Carnival Directors' Comment

Now that the first All University Carnival is a matter of history, it is only fitting and proper that some acknowledgement be made of the wonderful cooperation shown during the past few days by the students, University authorities and friends of the University.

While there were many who willingly gave much of their time and energy to this, our first All University Carnival, public acknowledgement of only a few is here-with made:

Mr. Louis Malkus, whose full-time services the Carnival Committee secured at the outset, and who has carried the brunt of the work. Without his unusual ability in directing the Carnival, the festival would have been impossible.

The University authorities whose cooperation and patience have been marvelous.

The University Hatchet, whose personnel worked untiringly in preparing the "Extra Edition" and general publicity work.

The various student organizations whose work has been stupendous. Special credit must be given the sororities for their untiring efforts from the time the popularity contest opened until the Carnival closed.

To these and that vast host of unnamed workers the sincere thanks of the Carnival Committee are extended.

Theodore Ringhart,
Chairman,
Carnival Committee.

People told me last fall that there was no such thing as school spirit at George Washington University. After a connection with five universities in the middle west supposed to have that school spirit, it is a genuine pleasure to say that the cooperation and enthusiasm demonstrated by the various organizations participating in the All-University Carnival for the benefit of the George Washington University Band was the finest demonstration of student spirit I have ever seen. The Band joins me in sincerest thanks to every organization and all students taking part in the gloriously successful Carnival just ended.

Louis Malkus
Director of the Band.

Alumni at Luncheon Hear War Secretary

Hurley Tells Fellow Graduates About His Student Days

The Secretary of War, Patrick Jay Hurley, was guest of honor and speaker at the George Washington University alumni luncheon Saturday at the Mayflower Hotel.

Mr. Hurley was introduced to his audience by Justice James M. Proctor, president of the Association, as "one of the sons of the University who has taken his place in the highest councils of the nation."

In his talk to the alumni Mr. Hurley combined informal reminiscences concerning his student days in the law school and a tribute to George Washington, asserting that "one of the things we have to be proud of is that our school is named for the father of our country. Today we as Americans are confronted with a challenge that calls for the spirit of Washington," he said.

Justice Proctor introduced those seated at the head table, including Chief Justice Wheat, Harry C. Davis, and Stephen E. Kramer, of the Board of Trustees of the University; Henry Grattan Doyle, dean of the Junior College; Dr. Frank A. Hornaday, past president of the Alumni Association, and Matthew O'Brien, of the Executive Committee.

DO YOU INHALE?

Why are other cigarettes silent on this vital question?

Do you inhale? Seven out of ten people know they do. The other three inhale without realizing it. Every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette.

Do you inhale? Lucky Strike has dared to raise this vital question . . . because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

Do you inhale? Remember—more than 20,000 physicians, after Luckies had been furnished them for tests, basing their opinions on their smoking experience, stated that Luckies are less irritating to the throat than other cigarettes.

Do you inhale? Of course you do! So be careful. Safeguard your delicate membranes!
